

PO Box 54453
Philadelphia, PA 19148
www.flashpointtheatre.org

December 18, 2007

Contact: Erin Lucas, Director of Marketing, 215-514-8965, erin@flashpointtheatre.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Art, Music and Theater: The Ultimate “One Night Stand”

What: One Night Stand

Where: Main Line Art Center, 746 Panmure Rd., Haverford

When: Friday, January 4, 6-9pm

How Much: FREE

What happens when a sculptor, an actor and a bass player converge on the same venue and receive equal billing? A rare occurrence, granted, but the Main Line's burgeoning First Friday is striving to do just this. When Main Line Art Center, Flashpoint Theatre Company and The Jesse Schurr Band combine forces and the Art Center's ample gallery space is opened to the young, the outrageous, the innovative and the emerging visual artists of the Main Line, magic can happen.

On Friday, January 4th, Main Line Art Center opens its galleries to artists of all mediums ages 18-35. Emerging painters, jewelers, sculptors, photographers, potters, and multi-media artists are invited to bring up to six works to be displayed, viewed and sold from 6pm-9pm at the Art Center, at 746 Panmure Rd., Haverford, PA 19041. Add one of Philadelphia's hottest young theatre companies, Flashpoint, previewing two of its upcoming productions and The Jesse Schurr Band, receiving a lot of attention for their innovative, folk-rock music, and you've got the makings of an outstanding event. One Night Stand is a free event, featuring beer provided by Victory Brewery and tasty snacks.

Whether you're looking for that "hot, new piece of art," or wanting to know what's coming up for one of Philly's most exciting theater companies or if you love live music, this is the event for you! For more information, please call 610-525-0272 or go to www.mainlineart.org/onenightstand.com.

Photos available upon request – erin@flashpointtheatre.org, 215-514-8965

###